4.25 Any candidate/union member/lecturer/person sending email(s), as a candidate or on behalf of a candidate, to the UL Microsoft Outlook distribution list(s) will be considered in breach of the University's Email Policy (entitled the 'Code of Conduct for Users of the University of Limerick's Computing Resources'). No emails are to be sent by any student promoting a candidate to any student with a @studentmail.ul.ie or @ul.ie account. This includes asking people to email on your behalf. Class Reps will lose their email privileges if they email their classes endorsing any candidate.

4.26 It is an offence for a candidate to be in receipt of sponsorship, gifts, or benefit-in-kind from vested commercial and/or political interests as well as an endorsement from a club or society.

It is an offence for a candidate to be in a receipt of an endorsement either in person or online by:

- a. Any person who is not currently a registered student of the University of Limerick.
- b. Any student who is not using their personal social media account.
- c. Any person who does not have a vote in the student election.
- c. Any other person that the ERB deem to give a candidate an unfair advantage.

All endorsements must be clear of any affiliations with clubs, societies, business, religions, or any other organisation that the ERB deem to be inappropriate. Social media influencers etc. who are current UL registered students can endorse campaigns. Any other influencer or individual with a big social media following cannot. This is to prevent unfair advantages between candidates. Businesses, social media influencers, athletes or well-known external personnel cannot endorse campaigns. An influencer is one who exerts influence: a person who inspires or guides the actions of others; often, specifically: a person who is able to generate interest in something (such as a consumer product) by posting about it on social media.

4.27 Current Executive Officers not contesting an election may not campaign for any candidate and must remain impartial.

4.28 The Student Life logo, UL Logo or any other logos issued by Student Life, or the Electoral & Referendum Board may not be included in campaign material.

4.29 All campaign issues and concerns should be addressed to student.voice@ul.ie any issues on Election Day should be addressed to the designated representative from the ERB. The ERB will only deal with written or emailed formal complaints.

5. Canvassing

5.1 On the election day candidates and their campaign team are allowed to engage in limited canvassing. Regardless of a physical or online poll, limited canvassing only allows for reminding students online, via their campaign page, that it is voting day and to go vote for them or who they believe is the right candidate and, to remind students to look at their material over the campaign period.

5.2 Candidates cannot physically or virtually contact/approach students individually on the day of voting asking that they vote for them.

6. R.O.N Campaign

6.1 If a student wishes to run a R.O.N campaign, then in the interest of fairness they must fill out the declaration form to act as a campaign manager for R.O.N.
