ELECTION HUB

ULSL's Election Hub is your go-to destination for all things election related. Here you can find out more about each full-time and part-time Student Officer position and hear more about each role directly from previous Student Officers.

ULSL CONSTITUTION

The Constitution is the governing document of UL Student Life, it contains our objectives and outlines some of the processes that manage our democracy. The original document was passed in May 2021, and can be found in it's most up-to-date form at the link below.

In conjunction with the constitution there are 8 Bye-Laws (all of which are attached to the constitution at the link above). These Bye-Laws are:

- Bye-Law 1: Rights of Students, Decision-Making, and Definition
- Bye-Law 2: Student Council
- Bye-Law 3: Executive
- Bye-Law 4: Board of Directors
- Bye-Law 5: Clubs and Societies
- Bye-Law 6: Finance
- Bye-Law 7: Representatives
- Bye-Law 8: Elections

Although it's important for Student Officers to be familiar with the Constitution, Bye-Laws, and how to navigate them, you're not expected to memorize them; that's what the Leadership & Representation Office is for.

No member of the ERB may be seeking or be involved in the election or Referendum for which it has been established. The ERB shall, from its number, select a chairperson. The Student Representation Coordinator shall have participant status on the ERB and will guide and coordinate the process. The ERB shall be in place before each election and shall implement the rules for the Academic Year in accordance to the rules and guidelines in Appendix One of this Bye Law.
