Student Engagement

Type of Engagement	Purpose and Anything to Report
Wellbeing hub	940 students engaged. Promoting harm reduction and anti spiking measures before all of the courtyard nighttime events during freshers week.
Orientation	Full officer team spoke in the concert hall to all incoming students. Building awareness as to who we are and what we do.
Flourish fest	Flourish Fest brought key university services together in one place so you could casually drop in, chat, and engage with them on your own terms. We had everyone from student health services, counselling, and wellbeing, to mature student supports, gambling and substance support services, the disability office, financial advisors, all there to chat to students. To enhance the atmosphere I also was handing out fruit on the day as well as UL music society with music to match the vibes.
Stitch and bitch	Welfare officer and Communities officer initiative. We hosted a crafting afternoon where people could come with no skill level to an expert in crafting, giving them a space to

	mingle and chat about how they were feeling after starting into/ back to college life.
